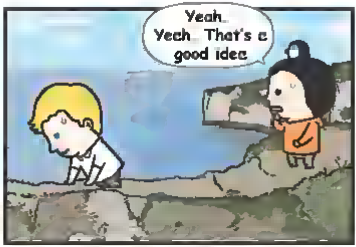
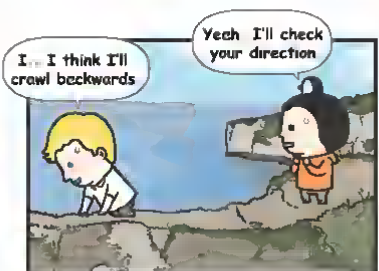
Penguin Loves Mev In the UK

On the cliff: Part 2

Mev was trapped on the cliff path.



First, he kept his body low..

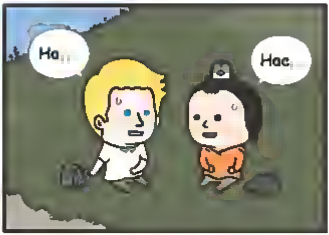


To release the tension and fear,
we pretended like it was not a big deal.

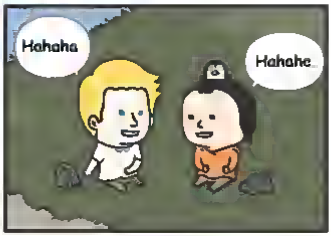
However, inside me was...

. . like this.

Finally he escaped the cliff



Our legs turned into jellies.



After our tension was releosed,
we smirked.

Yeah Haha.
When people ask you
what happened...

You would have to say you don't know
because you went to get the camera. Haha
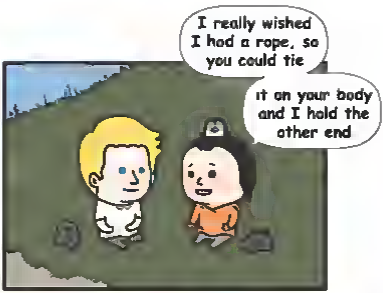
He ha



I really wished I had a rope, so you could tie it on your body and I hold the other end

But if I fell, you would've fell down too
Umm- I'd rather die with you

Well, then you could just jump down without a rope
A ha!

Ahll We both tie the rope on our bodies.

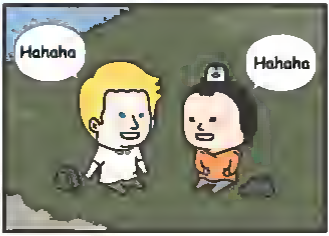
So if we are hanging there, someone will come to save us



We were joking about it for a while like this with a joy of survival.

Our armpits were totally flooded

Today's advice

Listen to what your wife says
if you want a long life
